ELIGIBILITY COMPLIANCE REQUIRED BY EACH PLAYER, MANAGER and TEAM

It is the duty of each player, player's parent (if applicable), manager, coach and team to review ASA's eligibility requirements and comply with ASA's eligibility requirements. Each team manager/coach is responsible for complying with the eligibility requirements and other requirements set forth in the ASA Code as to his/her team. This specifically includes, without limitation, eligibility requirements pertaining to proper classification, proper divisions, eligible pick up player requirements, eligible age requirements and all other eligibility requirements.

As to eligibility matters, any assurances or statements from ASA members, ASA commissioners or ASA officials other than ASA's Executive Director are not binding and shall not be binding upon ASA and shall not constitute a valid excuse for a team's, manager's or player's failure to comply with any eligibility requirement. ASA disclaims any and all liability for any player, team, manager or coach's reliance upon assurances of persons other than ASA's Executive Director. ASA disclaims any and all liability for any player, team, manager or coach's failure to comply with all eligibility requirements.

Teams, players, coaches and managers that are ineligible under the ASA Code and that incur travel and other expenses in connection with an ASA tournament do so at their own risk and peril. Teams, players, coaches and managers that are ineligible under the ASA Code are subject to disqualification or forfeiture at any time, as otherwise provided for in the ASA Code (i.e. upon the timely protest of any other team or official).

Any ASA official's signature (i.e. Commissioner's signature) on a roster form or any other document shall not be considered as a determination of the eligibility of a player or team. Eligibility of players or teams shall be governed as otherwise provided in the Code. Any solicitation or invitation for a team to participate in an ASA tournament by a Tournament Director or other ASA Official shall not be considered a determination of that team's eligibility. Eligibility of players or teams shall be exclusively governed as provided in the Code.

Gold Territory Qualifying Tournament Procedures.

01. Territory Qualifying Tournaments. Each Territory shall hold two (2) Territory Qualifying Tournaments (TQT) and may hold four (4). Berths would be divided equally amongst all of the Territory Qualifiers. Each Region within the Territory could only host one of two Territory Qualifiers in the same year unless no other Region in that Territory wished to host. By mutual agreement, regions within a territory may set the date for Territory Qualifiers in any order they desire. If no agreement can be reached, then the Region with the most Gold participation in the previous year would host the first Territory Qualifier in that Territory and the Region with the second most participation in the previous year in that Territory would host the second Territory Qualifier in that Territory. If a particular Region did not wish to host a Territory Qualifier, the Region with the next highest Gold participation would be offered the Territory Qualifier. That process would go on until all Regions had declined and would revert back to the Region with the most Gold participation in the previous year.

Comments: Gives the Territories the ability to have 4 Territorial Gold Qualifiers.
